TRYING TO LOCATE ROBBERS

Police Arrest Hallboy for Murder of Mrs. Nichols.

New York, Sept. 9.—After re-enacting late today in the Nichols home the part he played last night in the crime which resulted in the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, the aged widow, at the hands of masked men who robbed her of gems worth $10,000, Owanee Telas, the hallboy, who was formally charged with homicide was taken around town by the police in an effort to run down his accomplices. The police picked up seven men who were detained and then announced they were hopeful of making important arrests before many hours and of securing some trace of the stolen valuables.

HIS REST WAS BROKEN

C. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "For about six months I was bothered with shooting and continual pains in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken nearly every night by frequent action of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills and one 50c bottle made a new man of me. I can always recommend Foley Kidney Pills for I know they are good." This splendid remedy for backache, rheumatism, sore muscles and swollen joints contains no habit forming drugs.

EXECUTION SALE

Berkshire Coal & Grain Co.
Vs.
H. W. Bahau.

Notice is hereby given that there has been placed in my hands for collection and levy an execution in favor of the Berkshire Coal & Grain Co. against H. W. Bahau issued upon the judgment of a justice court held at Bennington in the County of Bennington on the 4th day of September 1915 for the sum of $106.98 damages and $4.38 cost of suit and that by virtue of said execution I have levied upon the following described property of said debtor now in my possession, namely:— five 98 pound bags of Gold Metal flour, three and one-half 98 pound bags of pastry flour, four barrels of Superior flour, 200 pounds of granulated sugar and 1 bag of Argo sugar.

Notice is hereby further given that unless the amount of said execution with interest and cost together with my legal fees and charges thereon is in the meantime paid and satisfied I will sell the personal property above described, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the said execution with costs and legal charges thereon, at public auction to the highest bidder in front of the Bennington County Court House on the 27th day of September 1915 at 11 o'clock in the forenoon for the purpose of satisfying in whole or in part said execution, cost and legal charges thereon pursuant to the direction of said execution.

Dated Bennington, Vt., this 10th day of September 1915.
Fred Godfrey, Sheriff.
